RECOMMENDED COMMUTE

1. For your journey to my home, consider taking the Kannur Express train (16511/16512) to and from Bangalore. The mornings are beautiful! Trains are relaxing and fun too.
2. Alternatively, you can fly into Mangalore or Kannur airports, from where you'll find plenty of local trains or taxis to connect.
3. If you prefer to drive, the route is scenic. Just be prepared for some rash Kerala bus drivers and the mountain/ghat sections. It's reasonable—I've done it several times, so I'm sure you can too!
4. Daily overnight buses from Bangalore directly to Trikaripur (Check redbus.in).
5. You could also take a bus to Mangalore (plenty of them from Bangalore, almost every hour) and then a short local train ride to my place, which will help you avoid the ghat section by bus.
